HOW WE EAT PHỞ?

STEP 1
Taste the Soup
Savor the clear, pure flavor of our broth, rich with savory amino acids from beef bones, offering a sweet and lingering taste sensation.

STEP 2
Add Side Dishes
Enhance your bowl by adding bean sprouts and Thai basil to the piping hot broth, allowing them to soak briefly before adding a squeeze of lime for a refreshing zest. For spice lovers, two chili peppers can be added for an extra kick

STEP 3
Dip in Sauce
According to personal taste, you can use a separate small plate to hold hoisin sauce and chili sauce to dip beef, beef balls, etc. If you like a strong taste, you can add the sauce into the soup.

SINCE 1970

MICHELIN GUIDE
HO CHI MINH CITY | 2023 & 2024

Vietnam's national noodle soup dish has taken the culinary world by storm, and Phở Lệ, one of the leading restaurants in town, insists on making it exactly the same way they have been doing for over 50 years. Come here for authentic southern Vietnamese style phở — in rich broth with a robust meaty flavour and a hint of sweetness from vegetables. Despite its age, the stall is neat and clean, and always jam-packed with hungry locals getting their noodle fix.
